RTMC EXTENDS CONDOLENCES ON PASSING OF FORMER CHIEF OF NATIONAL TRAFFIC POLICE MR DAVID TEMBE

CENTURION: The Road Traffic Management Corporation (RTMC) has learned with great sadness about the passing of Mr David Tembe, a trusted law enforcement official and dedicated public servant whose contribution to road safety has spanned over decades.

Mr Tembe was appointed as the first Chief of National Traffic Police for the RTMC in July 2011, a role he fulfilled with utmost dedication and zeal. He has since held various strategic positions in the law enforcement and public sector including being a Johannesburg Metro Police Department Chief of Police and strategic adviser to the Member of the Mayoral Committee (MMC) for Public Safety in the City of Johannesburg until he was met by his untimely passing.

The RTMC extends sincere condolences to Mr Tembe's family, friends and colleagues. His passing poses a significant loss to the road safety fraternity and the nation at large. The RTMC further honours his legacy and positive impact towards road safety and law enforcement.

May his soul rest in peace.
