MOTORISTS WARNED TO AVOID SCAM EMAILS DEMANDING IMMEDIATE PAYMENTS FOR TRAFFIC FINES.

GAUTENG -: The Road Traffic Management Corporation (RTMC) wishes to alert vehicle owners about a scam current going around which demanding immediate payment for traffic fines.

Vehicle owners are advised to exercise vigilance not fall prey to digital scammers who are sending scam emails through fraudulent websites designed to confuse them; and steal money or personal information.

We have discovered scam email purporting to be 'official communication from National Traffic Information System' from the department of transport.

The scam email demands immediate action to pay overdue traffic fines. The URL address is (natis.online.services) this is fake and a scam and its connection is unsecured.

We put it on record that, the RTMC through its online services website does not send fine notices to motorists. Any fine notice received by a motorist purporting to be from the online.natis.gov.za should be treated as a scam.

ENDS.
